

Oahu

Explore Oahu

Oahu, Hawaii has a fascinating blend of history and natural beauty. The island is home to the state capital of Honolulu, which is steeped in rich cultural heritage and offers an abundance of attractions, such as the historic Pearl Harbor and the iconic Waikiki Beach. Beyond the city, Oahu boasts some of Hawaii's most stunning landscapes, from towering peaks to pristine beaches and lush tropical rainforests.

www.boutikia.com

Things to do

-Oahu, Hawaii

ALOHA STADIUM SWAP MEET

This open-air market is held every Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday and features over 400 vendors selling everything from local crafts to fresh produce.

MANOA CHOCOLATE FACTORY

Take a tour of this small-batch chocolate factory and learn about the bean-to-bar process while sampling delicious chocolates.

DOLE PLANTATION

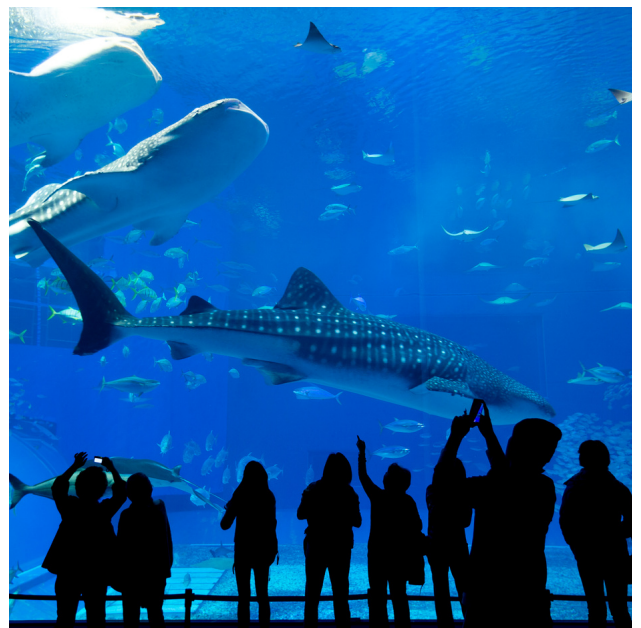

Located in Wahiawa, the Dole Plantation offers tours of their pineapple fields, a pineapple maze and a train ride through the property.

MAKAPUU LIGHTHOUSE TRAIL

This moderate hike offers stunning views of the coastline and the historic Makapuu Lighthouse.

HONOLULU ZOO

This 42-acre zoo is home to over 900 animals from around the world, including endangered species like the Komodo dragon and Hawaiian monk Seal.

WAIKIKI AQUARIUM

Learn about Hawaii's marine life at this small but informative aquarium located in Waikiki.

Things to do

-Oahu, Hawaii

HONOLULU MUSEUM OF ART SPALDIN HOUSE

This museum is located in a beautiful estate in the Makiki Heights and showcases contemporary art and installations in a stunning garden setting.

GO ON A FOOD TOUR

Sample some of the island's best local cuisine on a guided tour, including traditional Hawaiian dishes like poke and kalua pig.

GO TO A LUAU

A must do on your trip to Oahu! There are plenty of Luaus on the island like Germaine's Luau and Paradise Cove Luau. Enjoy a delicious buffet style dinner and show.

TAKE A SUNSET SAIL

Enjoy a romantic sunset sail along the Waikiki coastline or take a whale watching tour during winter months.

GO ON A HORSEBACK RIDING ADVENTURE

Explore the island's scenic countryside on a guided horseback ride, such as through the lush Manoa Valley.

RELAX, SWIM, SURF, OR HIKE

These are just a few of the many things to do in Oahu, Hawaii. The island offers endless opportunities for outdoor adventures, cultural experiences, and relaxation.

Food & Drink

-Oahu, Hawaii

ALAN WONG'S HONOLULU

This award-winning restaurant offers a contemporary Hawaiian cuisine using fresh, locally-sourced ingredients.

CHEF MAVRO

Another highly-acclaimed restaurant, Chef Mavro offers a fine dining experience featuring a blend of French and Hawaiian flavors.

ROY'S WAIKIKI

This renowned restaurant serves Pacific Rim cuisine with a focus on fresh seafood dishes.

GYU-KAKU

This Japanese restaurant specializes in yakiniku, a style of Japanese BBQ where diners grill their own meat at the table.

HULA GRILL WAIKIKI

This beachfront restaurant serves up fresh seafood, steaks, and tropical cocktails, with live music and hula performances.

HELENA'S HAWAIIAN FOOD

For a taste of traditional Hawaiian cuisine, Helena's is a must-visit. Their menu features classic dishes like kalua pig, lomi salmon, and poi.

THE PIG AND THE LADY

This trendy spot offers a fusion of Vietnamese and Hawaiian flavors, with dishes like pho and banh mi sandwiches.

SCRATCH KITCHEN & BAKE SHOP

This cozy eatery serves up comfort food with a modern twist, using fresh, locally-sourced ingredients.

MOKU KITCHEN

This casual eatery serves up modern Hawaiian comfort food with a farm-to-table approach.

ARANCINO AT THE KAHALA

This Italian restaurant features an extensive menu of pasta dishes, seafood, and traditional Italian entrees.

KOKO HEAD CAFE

Chef Lee Anne Wong's popular breakfast and brunch spot in Honolulu's Kaimuki neighborhood is known for its creative twists on classic comfort foods.

CHEF CHAI

Chef Chai Chaowasaree's eponymous restaurant serves up an inventive fusion of Thai, Hawaiian, and Pacific Rim cuisine in a chic setting.